DIED SUDDENLY
OF HEART DISEASE.

How frequently does a head line similar to the above greet us in the newspapers. The rush, push and strenuousness of the American people has a strong tendency to lead up to valvular and other affections of the heart, attended by irregular action, palpitation, dizziness, smothered sensations and other distressing symptoms.

Three of the prominent ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made are recommended by some of the leading writers on Materia Medica for the cure of just such cases. Golden Seal root, for instance, is said by the UNITED STATES DISPENSATORY, a standard authority, "to impart tone and increased power to the heart's action." Numerous other leading authorities represent Golden Seal as an unsurpassed tonic for the muscular system in general, and as the heart is almost wholly composed of muscular tissue, it naturally follows that it must be greatly strengthened by this superb, general tonic. But probably the most important ingredient of "Golden Medical Discovery," so far as its marvelous cures of valvular and other affections of the heart are concerned, is Stone root, or Collinsonia Can., Prof. Wm. Paine, author of Paine's Epitomy of Medicine, says of it:

"I, not long since, had a patient who was so much oppressed with valvular disease of the heart that his friends were obliged to carry him up-stairs. He, however, gradually recovered under the influence of Collinsonin (medicinal principle extracted from Stone root), and is now attending to his business. Heretofore physicians knew of no remedy for the removal of so distressing and so dangerous a malady. With them it was all guess-work, and it fearfully warned the afflicted that death was near at hand. Collinsonin unquestionably affords relief in such cases, and in most instances effects a cure."

Stone root is also recommended by Drs. Hale and Ellingwood, of Chicago, for valvular and other diseases of the heart. The latter says: "It is a heart tonic of direct and permanent influence."

"Golden Medical Discovery," not only cures serious heart affections, but is a most efficient general tonic and invigorator, strengthening the stomach, invigorating the liver, regulating the bowels and curing catarrhal affections in all parts of the system.

Hearst's Voice Canned.

Arrangements have been made to introduce graphophones and moving pictures into the Hearst campaign. Mr. Hearst has planned personally to appear at least once in all of the larger places in the State, but in the villages and hamlets inaccessible by special trains he will appear automatically.

Between now and election eve the special attraction on every village green will be Mr. Hearst talking through the graphophone and in the background Mr. Hearst in action on canvas. Nothing but high power apparatus will be used.

This feature of the campaign was decided on after it became known that the speeches of Mr. Hearst up-State had proved disappointing. The farmers had expected to hear a speech bristling and snapping with all the life of a Hearst editorial and when they got the Hearst speech they realized there was something lacking. They questioned how there could be such a vast difference between Mr. Hearst as a writer and Mr. Hearst as a speaker. It was like Garrick's couplet:

Here lies Nolly Goldsmith, for shortness called Noll,
Who wrote like an angel and talked like poor Poll.

So to correct this embarrassment as much as possible the graphophone business was inaugurated, and Mr. Hearst has spent much time talking "hot stuff" into a big brass funnel, while his words were being turned into "records" enough to last until election. After that was done the moving picture machine took him in hand, and everything was ready for the performance on the village green.

It was suggested to Mr. Hearst's managers that it might not be a bad idea to have his chief editorial writer talk into the machine, and then while the graphophone was rolling out something that the farmers would listen to they would see Mr. Hearst in action on the canvas, and all would go well. The managers thought it would be better to try the all-Hearst show first and see how it caught on. —[New York Herald.

Virginia's Debt.

The per capita indebtedness of the State of Virginia, according to figures obtained at the Census Bureau, is being slowly reduced. By per capita indebtedness is meant the per capita share of the public debt of the State. In 1880 the per capita share of this indebtededness was $30 09. In 1890 the per capita had increased to $31.54, but in 1902 the per capita had come down to $2540. The public debt of the State, includes not only the State debt as the designation is generally applied, but also the county and city indebtedness. The debt of Virginia in 1902, including the debt of the State and the city and county indebtedness amounted to $48,106,325, of which $24,171,863 was the debt of the State, represented by State bonds, and $23,934,462 was the aggregate of countries, cities and towns. These totals are reached by deducting the sinking fund assets from the debts. In 1880 the State debt, including city, town and county indebtedness, aggregated $45,518,776, which includes the debt represented by State obligations and the debt of minor civil subdivisions. In 1890 the debt had been increased to $52,122,126, but in the succeeding twelve years it was cut down over four millions. The administration of Governor Tyler, from January 1, 1867 to January 1, 1901, was marked by wise handling of the finances of the State, so wise that a deficit' or very nearly a deficit in the treasury was changed to a large surplus, after a large sinking fund had been provided.

Both Wives Contented.

Charles R. Sager, twenty-eight years old, his wife, his two small children, and another woman, to whom he was married unlawfully, have been living in the same house in Madison, Wis., since last May, the lawful Mrs. Sager acting as servant in the home of which her rival is mistress. Sager, who is an insurance solicitor and custodian of the buildings of the University of Wisconsin, voluntarily made this confession in court Monday. Every one concerned is contented with this arrangement of their domestic affairs, both women resenting it when the court interferred.

"Charley is a good, kind man, and we shall stick to him through thick and thin," said the second Mrs. Sager, after the man in the case had been sent to jail. "Shan't we, Bessie?" she asked of the first Mrs. Sager.

"We surely will stick by him," said the latter.

"So long as the three persons concerned," said Mrs. Sager No. 2, "are satisfied with this arrangement, I don't think outsiders should interfere and try to make trouble."

Judge Donovan, of the Municipal Court, said that the law must take its course, and that Sager could not be released, at least until an investigation should have been made.

Both of the women are young and attractive in appearance. The first Mrs. Sager is tall and a blonde; the second is short and a brunette.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac, Ky.. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemmorhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

All the good qualities of Ely's Cream Balm, solid, are found in Liquid Cream Balm, which is intended for use in atomizers. That it is an unfailing cure for Nasal Catarrh is proved by an ever-increasing mass of testimony. It does not dry out nor rasp the tender air-passages. It allays the inflamation and goes straight to the root of the disease. Obstinate old cases have been cured in a few weeks. THURSDAY EVENING. OCT. 11, 1906.

THE FIGHT this year for the control of the House is preliminary to the more important one of two years hence for President and for Congress, hence it behooves every democrat in every State to use his utmost endeavor to win. The party has had some bad backsets recently but should never [illegible]. The republicans have in the House a majority of [illegible] control of the next [illegible] of the Sixtieth Congress the democrats will have to [illegible] party now has, and take [illegible] from the republicans. It is certain that the republican majority will be cut and it is possible that it may be entirely overcome. The Roosevelt landslide of 1904 is responsible for the huge republican majority in the Fifty-ninth Congress. In the last campaign the democrats lost more than a dozen districts that they had controlled for years.

THE STORY of Romulous and Remus is recalled by the adventures of a Minnesota child. After being lost for two days, during which the entire country-side joined in a hunt for her, four-year-old Margaret Schweitzer, daughter of a well-to-do farmer of Brockway Township, was found unharmed in a wolf's den in the forest near St. Joseph a few mornings ago. The child was well and apparently contended, but scolded her rescuers for having driven away the "nice little doggies" with which she had been playing. The child said she had discovered the path leading into the thicket, and had followed it, and that "there were four nice little doggies" and that she had not been cold or hungry, because she had plenty of nuts to eat.

AT THE annual meeting of the stockholders of the American Shipbuilding Company held at Jersey City, yesterday, the president's report showed that the company had built thirty vessels during the year, and now has under contract forty-three others and that the earnings last year were nearly two and one half millions of dollars. This is a pretty good showing, but just as soon as Congress meets in December the ship subsidy gang will again begin their efforts to loot the treasury by demanding big subsides for the rich shipbuilders, claiming that but few vessels are now being built at American yards, and that the builders make no profits. The report of the American company is a complete refutation of any such statement.

WORRIED literally to death over the loss of an old and faithful servant, Mrs. Florence Unger ended her life in New York on Monday. Mrs. Unger had not been able to secure a woman to take the place of the one who had left, and had become greatly depressed by household cares. Monday morning her husband went out to try to get another servant. During his absence his wife killed herself by inhaling illuminating gas. In a letter which she left she said: "Good-bye. I am tired and need rest." Should southern women resort to suicide when they fail to secure servants there would be a fearful increase in the death rate.

THE MAN with the limited income or the small salary must view with dismay the standpat policy of the republican party. Prosperity is not for him, for the protection to the trusts has increased the cost of living to the point where pinching economy is necessary to make both ends meet. Vote the democratic ticket and help to spread prosperity to the many instead of the few.

AS A special interpreter of what he calls the "command of God," Senator Beveridge is impatiently but confidently waiting for this government to take possession of Cuba. It is curious, says the Philadelphia Record, how some gifted persons are capable of penetrating what most people modestly regard as the inscrutable decrees of Providence.

RENT, foodstuffs, and clothing are going up in price in all the cities. But the prices paid to farmers for their products are not rising. The trusts buy cheap and sell high, because they have a monopoly.

THE republican politicians' cry of patriotism is a sure sign they are after the coin. "The old flag and an appropriation" have won many a battle.

THE price of meat is soaring again. Nobody but the beef trust magnates seems to have derived any benefit from the legislation of Congress.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, Oct. 11.

Acting under instructions from Secretary Taft the War Department today issued an order placing Brigadier General J. Franklin Bell, Chief of Staff of the U. S. Army, who is now in Havana, in command of the United States forces in Cuba thus relieving Brigadier General Funston who will return to this country on Saturday with Secretary Taft, and assistant Secretary of State Bacon. At the War Deparment it is expected that Gen. Bell will not remain in Cuba very long provided present peaceful conditions continue. The wise ones are already casting about to select a successor to General Bell to place in charge of the Cuban expedition The officer most prominently mentioned in this connection is Brig. Gen. Theo. J. Wint, commanding the Department of the Missouri. The reason for Gen. Funston's recall, in the absence of definite information to the contrary, is accepted at the War Department to be that he has proved to be persona non grata to some of the Cuban leaders. While serving in the Cuban revolutionary army against the Spaniards he suddenly deserted the Cubans and went over to the Spaniards. It is supposed that some of the enemies made at that time are responsible for his recall now.

Governor Swanson and Senator Martin were in the city yesterday on matters of business. They were accompanied by their wives. Last night they attended the banquet given by the National Wholesale Druggists Association at the Willard. They will return to their homes today. Senator Martin says he thinks the newspapers have made too much importance of the ownership idea, enunciated by Mr. Bryan, in case the regulation rate bill is a failure. He says Bryan, who is a big, patriotic man, will be the nominee of the party and taking him at his word, will not insist on a government ownership plank unless the party wants it.

William Allan Reed, the youthful governor of Lapanto-Bontoc province in the Philippines, called at the White House this morning to pay his respects to the President. The dog eating Igorottes dwell in his province and it was principally about those that he talked to the President. He said that they are a peaceful people, not as highly civilized as some other tribes, but thoroughly in sympathy with the American government. Essentially they are an agricultural people and some of them are wealthy, according to their ideas.

The death of Lucien Conen in Louisville has completely prostrated Mrs. Jennie May, who fired the shot that doubtless was the cause of his death. Although she cannot be tried for murder a charge of manslaughter can, it is said, be laid against her. She is now under $5,000 bond for her appearance when wanted. She declined to talk of her case, but the trial will doubtless cause widespread interest. Mrs. May was notified today that she will be arraigned in Criminal Court No. 1 tomorrow to answer the charge of murder.

Shipwrecked on his way to China where he was going as a special agent of the United States for the investigation of the cotton-goods trade, W. A. Graham Clark established a vexatious precedent for ambitious agents by preparing an exhaustive report on his shipwrecked land, Hawaii. These are some of the points he learned at the "Crossroads of the Pacific:" That the Hawaiins are crying out for laborers, and that the Chinese are the best suited for plantation work; that the costing law of this country forbidding the shipment between American ports except in American bottoms should be amended so as not to apply to non-contiguous territory, or else to reduce the fine from $200 to $25 or $50; that Hawaii should take up the cultivation of new crops so that it may no longer be a one crop country, that of sugar.

It is understood that the Department of Justice has thus far been unable to find sufficient corroboration of the charges that the so-called sugar trust violated the anti-trust laws in its operations with Adolph Seagar and the now defunct Real Estate Trust Company of Philadelphia. The Attorney General acted with such great promptness upon the instructions for an investigation from the President that it has almost completed its inquiry into the charges against the trust filed with the President by Receiver Earle of the failed Trust Company. The belief prevails that the report of the Attorney General to the President will be in the nature of a vindication of the sugar people. Unless some striking lead is made within a few days the case will in all probability be shortly closed.

Charles E. Hunter, of Oklahoma City, the president and commander of the Roosevelt Rough Rider Association, had a chat with the President this morning about the date of the next annual reunion of the organization. It is to be held at Prescott, Ariz., and President Roosevelt is anxious to attend as he has done in the past. The intention is to unveil a statue of Capt. Bucky O'Neill, of Troop A, Rough Riders, if completed in time. No date was fixed for the reunion, and it will be subject of future conference with the President.

President Roosevelt manifested a keen interest today in the movement of the United Spanish War Veterans to form rifle clubs at their various camps throughout the country. He listened to an explanation by Capt. Ward, of Buffalo, newly elected commander-in-chief and others of the plans to establish these clubs and advise them to see Acting Secretary of War Oliver as to the possibility of securing the old rifles of the army for the clubs. In discussing the army canteens Capt. Ward said that the Veterans are generally in favor of its being restored.

The hearing of the habeas corpus case of Moyer, Haywood and Pettiboue, charged with the murder of Governor Steunenberg, of Idaho, was concluded before the U. S. Supreme Court this afternoon in an argument by Clarence S. Darrow on behalf of the Western Federation of Miners, who contended the men should be set at liberty at once.

With the joint installation of the national officers of the United Spanish War Veterans and the Ladies Auxiliary the third annual encampment of the two bodies today came to an end. The negro question came to the front again today when the encampment voted to designate camps of negroes as "negro camps" instead of "colored." It was also decided to disassociate the negro from the white camps in the several states, allowing each to have individual state organizations.

He stole the tombstone off the grave of his deceased mother-in-law. That is what Pedro Concepcion, of Manila, has to recommend him for the title of being the meanest man in the Philippines. Mail advices from the islands tell of the endeavors of the officers of the law to mete out proper punishment for this insult to injury. Pedro was hard up for grub, so the story goes, and his rooster of many battles was pining away. His wife was sick and a little Concepcion was just opening her big brown eyes in the great drama of life, fretting for food. There was not a centavo in the treasury, nor a bone in the cupboard. In the dead of night Pedro is accused of having stolen from the grave of his mother-in-law the slab placed there to record her virtues. He took it next day to a Chinaman to secure a loan, but the officers of the law got both the tombstone and Pedro.

The special committee of the Wholesale Druggists' Association on the place and time of the next convention this morning unanimously reported in favor of Denver, Col., in September next.

Vicount Aoki, the Japanese Ambassador, who has just returned from his summer vacation, called to pay his repects to Secretary of State Root this morning. He said that Mr. Hanihara, the second secretary of the Japanese Embassy here, who was sent to Alaska to investigate the killing of several Japanese who were caught approaching on the American seal island of St. Paul and took after the defense of the dozen Japanese who were captured by officials of the Department of Commerce and Labor at the same time, has completed work and left Juneau yesterday for the United States. He went no further than Valdez where the prisoners are confined. Mr. Hanihara has as yet made no report to the Embassy of the result of his investigations.

HEAVY FAILURE.

The assignment of J. M. Ceballos & Co., bankers and merchants, with liabilities between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000, was announced yesterday in a statement which declared that the failure was due to the defalcation and absconding of Manuel Silveira, of the New York company.

Silveira's defalcation is alleged to amount to about $1,000,000. He sailed from Havana on October 2, ostensibly for New York city to consult with J. M. Ceballos & Co., but has not reached the latter city. Counsel for the assignee said yesterday that Silveira has left on his own steamer, the Carmelina, for parts unknown, accompahied by his wife and chidren, and that every effort was being made to locate him. The members of the firm of J. M. Ceballos & Co. are J. M. Ceballos, John S. Fiske and Anderson C. Wilson. The assignee is William V. Rowe, of the law firm of Sullivan & Cromwell, of New York. Mr. Rowe said yesterday that the assets of the firm were of a very substantial character, but from a hasty examination it was manifest that they would require careful husbanding. Accountants are now at work on the books of the company.

It was stated unofficially that there was ground to hope that the assets would be sufficient to cover the losses of the firm and that it would be enabled to resume business. The firm was established about 50 years ago and has large interests in Cuba, chiefly in the development of railroads and sugar plantations.

Members of the firm are identfied with number of banking and mercantile associations.

Killed by Rejected Lover.

In the presence of 60 pupils in the South Euclid School at Cleveland, O., Harry Smith, 25 years old, shot to death Miss Mary Shephard, a teacher 22 years old, yesterday afternoon. Cornered behind the barn in the rear of his home, in Warrensville, two hours later, Smith shot himself through the head, dying instatly.

Four Cleveland policemen, with drawn revolvers and under cover of eight armed farmers were about to rush on young Smith when he ended his life. Disappointment in love is said to have been the motive of the cold-blooded murder. Smith, who was a fourth cousin to Miss Shephard, had wooed her for sometime and recently was rejected. He brooded over the unhappy ending of his courtship and yesterday afternoon, first quitting his position, bought a revolver and went to the South Euclid School. Miss Shepard responded to his knock at the door. He walked in and for a few moments talked to her in the hall. Suddenly he whipped out his revolver, shoved it against her head and fired twice in rapid succession, both bullets crashing through her brain.

Panic spread among the pupils, who rushed out of the building screaming. Some of the girls fainted.

Smith leisurely walked out and boarded a car for Warrensville. The news of the crime went like wildfire, and in less than half an hour an armed posse formed and was in full pursuit. The identity of the murderer was quickly established. Chief of Police Kohler was notified, and he dispatched four policemen to Smith's home, in Warrensville, a short distance from the school. On the suburban car Smith confessed to the conductor that he had killed Miss Shepard and remarked that "they will have to kill me to get me."

Reaching home but a few minutes before the arrival of the posse and police, Smith told his father of the crime. When his pursuers hove in sight the young man became highly nervous and ran from the house to the rear of the barn. His father remained in his house. A loaded double-barreled shotgun was leaning against one side of the house, but was passed by Smith, who evidently had determined not to put up a fight, but end his life as soon as surrounded. When the posse got within a few feet of him, calling for his surrender, and as the four officers were rushing to effect his capture, he placed the revolver against his head and blew out his brains

Virginia Doctors.

One of the most important actions taken by the Medical Society of Virginia, now in session at the University of Virginia, was the adoption yesterday of the report on medical examiners' fees for life insurance companies and benevolent associations, submitted by a committee appointed at the Norfolk meeting last year. This report fixes the minimum fee of $5 by members of the society where urianalysis is required on policies of $5,000 or less; a minimum fee of $3 on all policies of $3,000 or less where this analysis is not required. The society went further and decided against any discrimination in favor of fraternal or benevolent associations, and denounced the action of insurance companies toward its examiners, and appeals to local societies to prescribe the status of members who act in opposition to the views of the majority. The society decided to use its influence, collectively and individually, in behalf of the insurance companies which pay the full $5 fee.

Virginia News.

The county of Spottsylvania, has paid off the last $8,500 of bonds for building the new courthouse and the county now owes no debt.

The first snow of the season in Virginia commenced falling in Fauquier county Tuesday afternoon and continued for two hours.

Mrs. Nellie Roberts Goodwin, the young wife of Hugh Goodwin, of Rapidan, Orange county, died Tuesday of typhoid fever at her home, after an illness of one month. She is survived by her husband and parents.

Mr. James E. Lake, wife of Prof. Lake, professor in Wake Forest College, North Carolina, died at her home in that place recently. Mrs. Lake was about thirty-five years of age, and is survived by her husband, who is the son of Dr. I. B. Lake, a Baptist minister of Loudoun county, and by five small children.

John Shugar, of the Marion Fire Company, of Reading, Pa., attempte l suicide early yesterday morning in a Portsmouth hotel. He gashed himself from his right ear around to the front of his throat. He was discovered in his bed in a pool of blood by Charles Gring, his roommate. Ill health is thought to have driven him to attempt suicide. It was his second attempt to end his life. He will recover.

Mrs. Elizabeth Carmichael Smith, wife of Rev. W. D. Smith, of Winchester, formerly rector of St. George's Church, of Fredericksburg, died at her home in Winchester Tuesday after a protracted illness. The deceased had been married for about a year. She was the eldest daughter of the late Dr. Spottswood Wellford Carmichael. She was born and spent her life in Fredericksburg until her marriage.

The marriage of Miss Avrie Heineken to Mr. W. C. Lann took place Tuesday afternoon at Mill Park, the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A Heineken, near Haymarket. As the family of the bride is in mourning, only the family and several intimate friends were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Cary Gamble, rector of St. Paul's Church.

Reunion of Mosby's Men.

The survivors of Col. John S. Mosby's famous command, 62 in number, met in Lee Camp Hall in Richmond yesterday in their annual reunion. The meeting was a strictly business one and no welcoming addresses were delivered. The following officers were elected.

Hugh McIlhenny, of Staunton, commander; J. S. Mason, first lieutenant-commander; Ed Thompson, second-lieutenant commander; F. H. Rahm, third lieutenant-commander; H. S. Ashby, adjutant; John S. Castleman, sergeant major.

A committee of five was appointed, in conjunction with the commander, to take action in regard to an invitation from the Eighth Illinois Regiment to hold a reunion with them next year. The majority were in favor of meeting the Illinois command for the first time unarmed. The Eighth Illinois was opposed to Mosby's dashing rangers in more than one bloody engagement. Considerable time was taken in discussing the proposed monument to Colonel Mosby to be raised at Marshall. It was decided to let the matter go over until the next meeting as Colonel Mosby objects to a monument to him while he is living. The veterans were banqueted at Murphy's Hotel last night by Mr. Joseph Bryan, a member of the old command. Captain Foster, the retiring commander, presided, Mr. Bryan being unable to do so on account of a recent bereavement in his family. Mayor McCarthy made the speech of welcome and other felicitous speeches were made by Capt. Hugh McIlhany, Dr. J. W. Jones, Major R. W. Hunter, Maj. Moses Green, Lieut. Wiltshire, Col. Sam Chapman and Col. W. H. Chapman.

Gen. Funston Recalled.

Gen. Frederick Funston will not continue in command of the American forces in Cuba. Governor Taft yesterday announced that he and General Funston will leave Havana for the United States on Saturday on the battleship Louisiana.

Despite the official explanation well informed persons firmly believe that General Funston's recall is the result of a Cuban cabal working against him. General Funston served in the Cuban army but "left" the Cuban "patriots" and came to this country. For this reason the Cubans made his task so unpleasant that Secretary Taft concluded it would be wiser to send him home and put Gen. Bell in command.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Weather.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 11.—Old Boreas has made an unusually early and impressive debut. Reports to the Weather Bureau indicate a general falling of the mercury in the past twenty-four hours of from ten to twenty degrees in the country east of the Mississippi. Snows are reported in Ohio, Indiana, New York, Pennsylvania and even Virginia. In some places up north they reached a depth of four inches. In many cities of the north yesterday was the coldest October day on record, while from the south comes the information that overcoat weather prevails as far down as Georgia. At Asheville, N. C., the temperature is at freezing point.

The Weather Bureau today made the following announcement: The barometer continues to fall in lower lake regions, and as a result there have been considerable rain or snow over New York and northern New England. In all other parts of the country, except the north Pacific coast, the weather has been fair and cold. Abnormally cold weather prevails in the south, with light to killing frost in the central and northern portions of Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and the western portion of the Carolinas, including Tennessee and the Ohio valley. Unsettled weather with rain or snow will continue in the lower lake regions and northern New York tonight and Friday. Cold weather will continue in southern and eastern districts tonight, with frost in the northern portions of the east Gulf States, also in Georgia and the Carolinas, except on the coast. Temperatures will rise Friday in practically the whole of the Washington forecast district.

Hearst and Murphy.

New York, Oct. 11.—Hearst and Murphy came to an agreement in regard to the judicial nominations to go on the democratic ticket, and the slate made up by the two factions was adopted formally at the Tammany county convention last night. The convention itself was a perfunctory affair, the delegates adopting the slate without objection or comment. In addition to Hearst and Murphy, Big Tim Sullivan had a hand in the selection. Sullivan had only one candidate to present, but he got his man, Mitchell T. Erlanger, his personal attorney, put on the slate. Sullivan also had a hand in crushing the ambition of one or two of Hearst's friends to see their names on the ticket. Hearst is credited with dictating four of the six candidates named for judgeships. Murphy and Tammany selected the others. The ticket accordingly is a composite affair representing many elements. Strangest of all was the acceptance by Tammany of an out and out republican as one of its candidates. John Ford, insisted upon by Hearst, went on the ticket.

The Failure of J. M. Ceballos & Co.

New York, Oct. 11.—With the opening of the banks today the full extent of the liabilities of J. M. Ceballos & Co who failed yesterday was estimated at between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000. Although the publication of the story of the defalcation of Manuel Silveira, head of the Havana house which caused the failure, had put all mariners along the coast on the lookout, no word has been received from the Carmelina, the steamer on which the missing man embarked. Developments show that the Ceballos Company was unfortunate in its Havana connection. The firm of J. M. Ceballos & Co. for fifty years has been the leader in trade between the United States and Cuba and Porto Rico. The assets consist chiefly of sugar properties and plantations. The head of the Ceballos firm is a director in many big corporations in Cuba and Porto Rico, also the International Banking Corporation. It is feared the failure will force many small enterprises to the wall.

Killed by an Explosion.

New York, Oct. 11.—Three men are believed to be dead as the result of an explosion which occurred today in the Pennsylvania tunnel under Long Island City, and set fire to the timbers in the tunnel. Fifteen men were overcome, but rescued. The explosion occurred in lock D, directly under the Long Island Railroad depot, where twenty men were at work. Just what caused the accident is not known. All the men in the lock were thrown against the walls and three were rendered unconscious. They were left in the tunnel, when the frightened workmen regained their feet and rushed for the shaft to be hauled to the surface. Fire broke out immediately following the explosion, the wooden supports burning fiercely. There is little doubt but that the three men left in the lock were burned to death.

Killed in Railroad Accidents.

St. Louis Oct., 11.—Iron Mountain fast mail No. 11, due to leave Union Station at 2:15 this morning, pulled out half an hour late, and in making up time in Carondelet jumped the rails at the Memphis "Y," killing Peter Rafferty, fireman, of this city, and fatally injured the engineer, John Casper, Henry Jewson mail clerk and Edward J. Martin, mail clerk, all residents of St Louis. Several others were more or less injured.

Cheyenne, Wy., Oct. 11.—In a head on colision at Ridge, 200 miles west of Cheyenne, on the Union Pacific Railway early this morning, Engineer Strong and Murray, Firemen Euston Kelley, head brakeman Myers, all of Laramie, Wyoming and an unknown tramp were killed. Head brakemen Simms was fatally injured.

The Brouwer Trail.

Toms River, N. J., Oct. 11.—Renewed confidence in the ultimate accquittal of the defendant was manifested by his attorneys when the trial of Dr. Frank Brouwer on charge of murdering his wife, was resumed today. Brouwer's lawyers feel that they scored heavily on the prosecution yesterday and believe, in view of the turn the trial has taken, that the State will break down utterly. The prosecution now is devoting its energies to bringing out evidence as to Mrs. Brouwer's symptoms during her illness as the basis of contention that she was poisoned.

Sensational Elopement.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 11.—The following sensational elopement is published exclusively in the Press this afternoon:

Steubenville, O., Oct. 11.

Mrs. James Scott, Pittsburg, Pa.:

Frederick and I were married here yesterday. NELLIE.

The above telegram was received this morning by Mrs. James Scott, of Stanton avenue, East End, revealed one of the most sensational elopements in Pittsburg in years.

The principals are Frederick Cole Fairbanks, son of the Vice President of the United States, and Miss Nellie Scott, an accomplished young woman of the East End.

Parental objections to the match on the part of Vice President Fairbanks and Mrs. Fairbanks, are said to have been the cause of the elopement.

Their engagement was to have been announced early this month and the marriage take place next month. But instead, Mr. Fairbanks and Miss Scott slipped quietly away to Steubenville yesterday and were married there last evening, at the home of a friend by the Rev. Dr. Brodie.

Not for years has such a sensation been created in society circles as was caused this morning when Mrs. Scott confided the knowledge of the elopement to some of her intimate friends.

The marriage reveals a charming romance, which is scarcely surpassed in its romantic features by the elopement and marriage of Mrs. Mary E. Schenley so many years ago.

Both of the parties are young Mr. Fairbanks being about 25 years of age. Mr. Fairbanks is a prominent young business man of Springfield, Ohio, where the couple will make their home.

Mr. Fairbanks and his bride will come to Pittsburg late today, and after spending a day or so here, will leave for their honeymoon trip, which will be a tour of Europe.

Panic in Blind Asylum.

New York, Oct. 11.—A panic among the 100 inmates of the Home for Destitute Blind occurred today when fire broke out in the sixth story apartment house, Edinboro, adjoining the institution. Flames made their appearance simultaneously on the top story and in the basement of the apartment house. The tenants, aroused from their slumber by the cry of fire, shouted wildly. Their wild cries reached the inmates of the adjoining Home, and the helpless blind people were soon in a panic. It required the efforts of all the staff to quiet the inmates and it was not until the fire was out that they were completely calmed. Several persons in the Edinboro had narrow escapes from suffocation.

From Cuba.

Havana, Oct. 11.—Liberal partisians continued today to keep up the demonstration started yesterday in connection with the celebration of the anniversary of the beginning of Cuba's ten years war with Spain.

Slight disorder have occurred at several points as a result of the demonstrations, moderates in several instances objecting to the display of their political rivals.

It is generally conceeded that the new party movement which has been inaugurated is a failure. The prime movers in the movement, decline, however, to make any comment on the subject.

Town In Flames.

Halifax, S. C, Oct. 11.—Summerside, the capital of Prince Edward Island, is in flames and early today the whole town appeared to be doomed. Summerside is one of the most prosperous towns on the island and has a population of 5,000. The fire started in the railroad station, the water mains broke and half the town was in flames in an hour. All of the surrounding towns have dispatched assistance. Owing to the early hour at which the fire started, it is feared that there will be loss of life.

Leper to be Returned.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Oct. 11.—Syrians throughout the United States have raised sufficient money to return George Rasbid, the leper, to his native country, and as soon as permission is granted by the Boards of Health of Maryland, the District of Columbia, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York, he will be sent to New York. Upon arrival at New York, the federal government will take charge of his return to Syria.

Rhode Island Republicans.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 11.—The republican State convention today renominated the entire State ticket headed by Governor George H. Utter, and Lieutenant Governor Frederick H. Jackson. The platform indorsed the administrations of President Roosevelt and declared sympathy with the victims of mob violence in some parts of the country and demanded prompt punishment of the offenders.

Another Massacre.

St Petersburg, Oct. 11.—Another massacre of Jews attended with considerable loss of life is reported at Tula. Holligans started the Jew baiting which continued for three days and nights. Horrible cruelties were practiced upon Jews, it is stated, young Jewish girls being made the special victims of the rowdies.

Prosecution of Standard Oil Company.

Findlay, O., Oct 11.—The crucial points in the State's prosecution of the Standard Oil Co. has arrived. Unless the State can get the amended charter of the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, before the grand jury, an important link in the chain of evidence will be missing.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 11.—The stock market was again strong in spots and with a generally firm understone. In early trading Union Pacific, Pennsylvania and Erie were strongest features. Union Pacific was carried up to 191¾, the highest at which the stock has sold since it was exdividend. St. Paul advanced to 178¼. Toward the end of the first hour copper became active and strong. So far London bought about 15,000 shares chiefly Pennsylvania, United States Steel and Amalgamated.

Suicide an Embezzler.

According to a statement which the Philadelphia Public Ledger on the authority of a member of the Wampole Company, Henry K. Wampole, the drug manufacturer, whose body was found recently in the East river, New York, died an embezzler of a large sum of money. It is asserted by the Public Ledger that Wampole robbed his business partners systematically.

The amount secured by Wampole is estimated at $500,000, and may be found to be considerably more. Wampole, it is stated, left a paper representing several hundred thousands of dollars in about sixty banks of Pennsylvania and other places in Philadelphia and also some in New Jersey. Not until a few days prior to his death did his partners have any idea of his defalcations. Since then the story has been carefully guarded. The assets of the Wampole Company are ample to meet all obligations or demands. Wampole, it is said, had for some time been engaged in a number of exceedingly risky transactions, and even resorted to perjury in order to secure money from the banks.

Croker's Libel Suit.

Richard Croker yesterday formally inaugurated the libel suit, in Dublin, which will bring to a definite issue the question whether he used his position as chief of Tammany Hall for purposes of financial profit. The suit is against the London Magazine, which publishes in its current number a scathing article against the growth of so-called "Tammanyism" in England, incidentally detailing in alleged chapters from New York the operations of Tweed and Croker.

Mr. Croker's affidavit makes a sweeping denial of any wrongdoing while head of Tammany Hall and especially denies using the organization for purposes of extortion or personal profit.

The case will be tried before an Irish jury, and, it is expected, will attract much attention owing to the issue of the honesty of Tammany's administration. That a notable array of lawyers will be retained is indicated by the position of Mr. Croker's counsel, James W. M. Campbell, K. C., who represents Dublin University in the House of Commons, and who was successively solicitor general and attorney general for Ireland under the late Balfour government.

Daughters of the Confederacy.

The annual convention of the Virginia division of the Daughters of the Confederacy convened at Wytheville yesterday. The president, Mrs. William R. McKenny, of Petersburg, called the convention to order. Judge Samuel W. Williams, of Wytheville, delivered an address of welcome and the president responded. Reports of the several committees show that the Virginia division has 95 chapters and a membership of over 4,000. Sixty chapters are represented in the convention. At the memorial service 23 chapters reported the loss of 38 members by death during the past year. Two receptions were tendered the visiting Daughters in the afternoon.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

All Chicago is talking of Mary MacLane, who offers to sell herself "to the highest bidder" as an American woman slave. She declares she is ready to convert her talents into ready cash at public auction. She was formerly Miss Elizabeth Magie, once in the government employ at Washington.

George F. Lauer, a wealthy brewer applied to the court at Reading, Pa., today for a divorce from his wife, with whom he lived but one day. They were married at the bride's home at Binghamton, N. Y., two weeks ago. Lauer says he learned his bride was under indictment on a charge of stealing jewels from a former husband.

The third battle of the world's baseball championship series will be fought this afternoon on the West Side grounds, Chicago, of the "Cubs." Indications are that Walsh will pitch for the Sox and Lungren for the Cubs.

The firm of Chambers, operators on the Liverpool cotton exchange, has failed. Absence of remittances from the United States is believed to be the cause of the failure.

Frank Moffett, assistant fire chief of Manilla, who absconded with 3,000 pesos of the fire department relief fund, has made a confession of his guilt.

John Reese, a veteran of the civil war, who lived alone in his house in Cleveland, Ohio, and who had no fire in the house, was a frozen to death last night.

All grades of copper have been advanced ¼ a ½ cent at the New York metal exchange.

DIED.

Suddenly, on October 9th, 1906, at 3 p. m., at her late residence, 227 south Fairfax street, Alexandria, Va., SUSAN C. WEBSTER, age 57 years. Funeral from 227 south Fairfax street, thence to St. Mary's Church, Friday, October 11, at 9 a. m.

Suddenly at 4 p. m. Wednesday, October 10th, ALPHONSO N. ARRINGTON, in the 56th year of his age. Funeral Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad, but loving, remembrance of my darling son, CHARLES RANDOLPH DOBSON, who died October 11, 1905—just one year ago today.

Oft have I wandered to the graveyard,
Tenderly I have nursed the flowers;
There beside my darling Randolph's grave
I have passed many sad and lonely hours.
Looking to the sky above me,
Wondering if it will be long
Ere the angels come to take me
To the place where my Randolph has gone,

BY HIS DEVOTED MOTHER.

In sad and loving remembrance of my dear brother, CHARLES RANDOLPH DOBSON, who died October 11, 1905—one year ago today.

My darling you have left us sad and forlorn.
The fond hearts that cherished are now left to mourn;
But, Randolph, we will meet you on the beautiful shore.
You will be watching and waiting and we will part never more.

BY HIS LOVING SISTER, MRS. RAMEY.

Loss of a Large Sum of Money.

As was stated in the Gazette, Mr. Henry A. Crump, messenger of the First National Bank in this city, lost $3,500 in Washington yesterday, and all efforts to find the same or to get on the trail of the person having it in his possession have proven futile. Some of the Washington police believe the money was taken from Mr. Crump by a pickpocket, many of whom are said to be in Washington at present. The messenger, however, firmly believes the package of money slipped through a hole in the inside pocket of his coat which was buttoned at the time.

The circumstances in connection with the robbery as ascertained at the bank are as follows:

Mr. Crump, accompanied by Watchman J. W. Brown, left this city yesterday morning on the 9 o'clock electric train, Mr. Crump having in his possession a check on the American National Bank, of Washington, for $4,000. The two men proceeded to the American National Bank, where they had the check cashed. Mr. Crump and the watchman subsequently went to the Treasury Department for the purpose of having the bills, which were of a large denomination, changed for $1 bills. Mr. Crump succeeded in getting only $500 in the $1 bills. He turned this amount over to Mr. Brown and placed the remaining $3,500 in an envelope of the American National Bank, which he put in his inside pocket. The two men then proceeded to the electric railway station and Mr. Crump upon arriving there looked into his pocket to assure himself that the money was safe. He then discovered his loss. It is thought by the bank officers the money must have dropped from Mr. Crump's pocket somewhere between the Treasury Department and the railway station. At this place some strange men, who appeared to be in a hurry, were running to and fro procuring tickets, and it is suggested that one of this party may have abstracted the money.

Mr. Crump has been employed at the bank as a messenger for the past twenty-five years, and has always been regarded as a prudent and careful employee.

A reward of $500 has been offered by the bank for the return of the money to the American National Bank in Washington.

The Steamboat Tie-up.

The decision of the Maryland bureau of statistics and information as to the merit of the controversy between the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic and the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway lines and the striking captains of their steamboats, announced in Baltimore late last night, is adverse to the companies and the Pennsylvania Railroad, which controls them. It recommends that the governor compel the companies to perform their obligations as common carriers or vacate their charters.

The freight situation yesterday was slightly better than it was several days ago.

A rumor during yesterday was that the marine engineers would go on strike, in sympathy with the masters and pilots.

In a letter to Captain Thomson, the masters and mates decline to sever their connection with their organization.

Captain Thomson, in reply, says he will treat with them only as "former employes," and not as members of the organization.

It is rumored that the controversy will be taken over Captain Thomson's head to Mr. Pugh, president of the lines, if some settlement is reached soon. On the other hand, it is said the directors of the companies are behind Captain Thomson and will refer the matter back to him if such action is taken.

Found Dead.

Alphonso Arrington, a well-known resident of this city, was found dead late yesterday afternoon in his house near the outlet to the old Alexandria canal. His body was discovered by Mr. Edward Dean, who notified Officer Roberts. At the instance of Justice Pelton, acting coroner, it was removed to the undertaking establishment of Demaine & Son. No inquest was deemed necessary. The deceased was fifty-six years old. He was a bricklayer by trade, but had not followed his occupation for a long time. He is survived by two sons and three daughters. Recently he had been suffering from stomach trouble, and it is believed that his death was due to this cause. The deceased enjoyed an extensive acquaintance in this city and neighborhood. The funeral will take place from his daughter's residence, 408 Queen street, at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Rev. J. H. S. Ewell will officiate.

Alexandria Knights Templar' Parade.

The annual inspection and parade of Old Dominion Commandery, No. 11, Knights Templars of this city, took place last night. About sixty members were present in full uniform, and after parading the principal streets of the city headed by the Naval Gun Factory Band, the commandery proceeded to the Alexandria Light Infantry Armory, on south Royal street. Here the inspection was made by Eminent Sir William Baulch, of Hampton, Va., in the presence of a large number of spectators. The commandery subsequently repaired to their asylum in the Masonic Temple where a sumptuous banquet had been spread by Rammel Bros. Speeches were made and all present experienced an enjoyable evening.

Fined $2.50 Each.

Seven young colored women were arraigned before the Police Court this morning charged with disorderly conduct and vagrancy. Five of them were fined $2.50 each and two dismissed. The proprietor of the public house in the northeastern section of the city where Thomas Elzey was shot and killed by Howard Banks, also colored, tonight week, was also before the court charged with keeping a disorderly house where the colored women referred to and others congregate. His case was continued.

Personal.

Mrs. E. T. McVeigh continues quite sick at her home on Queen street.

Mrs. W. J. Morton and children have returned from Stafford county where they spent the summer.

Mrs. Milton Evans, of Alexandria, has been on a visit to her sister-in-law, Mrs. G. Lippitt Renner. Miss Sallie Feagans, of Alexandria, is visiting her cousin, Miss Dove Feagans, at Wheatland.—[Charlestown, W. Va., Spirit of Jefferson.

Mrs. Elliott Cabell and children have returned from Berryville where they spent the past few months.

Miss Cora Duffey, of Alexandria, was the guest of the Misses Hammerly several days last week.—[Leesburg Mirror.

Miss Alice E Colquhoun has returned from Paeonian Springs, where she spent the past three months.

Miss Janet Rowen is visiting Miss Emma Clinedinst in Edinburg, Va.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

A white man arrested by Officer Jones for drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Edward Payton, colored, arrested by Officers Knight and Ferguson as a suspicious character, was fined $5.

Irene Bushrod, Bessie Keys, Pearl Hawkins, Mamie Wains and Lucy Shepherd, all colored, arrested by Officers Smith and Nicholson charged with disorderly conduct and vagrancy, were fined $2.50 each. Ida Fuller and Sofia Tolson, charged with similar offenses, were dismissed.

A white man, charged with keeping a disorderly house, was dismissed.

Opera House.

Another good drama, well presented, was the opinion of those who witnessed last night the production of "In the Tiger's Den," in four acts, by the Runkel Stock Company at the Opera House. Every part was well taken and everything done to please the large audience. The specialties were excellent, especially the Breton-Runkel Trio and "Hiawatha." Tonight the company will present the English melodrama "Queen's Evidence," a four act drama of unusual merit. Tomorrow the company will produce the stirring drama of the South before the war, "The Penalty of Pride." This play made an excellent reputation on Monday night and will be repeated by request.

Visiting Firemen.

Eighty-five members of the Marion Fire Company of Reading, Pa., reached this city this morning on the Norfolk steamer. They were accompanied by a band of music. The visitors were met by a delegation of the Hydraulion Veteran Firemen's Association of this city by which organization they were entertained, and taken to all interesting points in the city. The company left at 2 o'clock this afternoon much pleased with their visit to Alexandria and the manner in which they had been entertained, George A. Trivel was marshal and Joseph Barkman captain. The company will visit Washington, Arlington and other places of interest before returning home.

Cool Wave.

A decidedly cool wave struck this city and neighborhood yesterday afternoon, causing the mercury in the thermometer to fall considerably. There was some rain, and the brisk northwest wind made fires feel comfortable. The mercury this morning stood at 38°, and frost was visible. Ice also formed in exposed places. The weather today has been fair, with a cold northwest wind.

The Visiting Judge.

The present term of the Circuit Court will end Saturday and on Monday the present term under Judge Louis C. Barley, of the Corporation Court of Alexandria, will convene. Judge Barley comes here to hear a number of cases, in which Judge Haas was interested as counsel some months ago, when he was a practicing attorney.—[Harrisonburg Times.

UNDERWEAR.

Skin Thoroughly Protected. Breathe Freely.

Abrupt and unexpected changes in the weather are now in progress. A freezing night is apt to follow an Indian summer day. At such a season of the year it is virtually important that the body be given proper protection especially is this true in the matter of underwear. Heavy outside clothing is of practically no avail, if the clothing next to the skin, if the underwear is not of the proper kind. The rules of health demand at this season of the year that the skin in addition to being thoroughly protected, should be allowed to breath freely. Our underwear combines these two most important features, and we are showing many different styles in Union and Two-piece suits for the whole family. Remember, a word of advice in time is worth much useless advice when it is too late. Now is the time to buy

Goodloe Underwear.

Below we mention a few specials of our low price garments:

Men's Extra Heavy Fleeced Underwear .....39c per Garment.
Ladies' Extra Heavy Fleeced Underwear.....21c per Garment.

Spanish Laws for Religious Orders.

The new law of associations, according to the Madrid Heraldo, will contain the following provisions:

First—No religious order shall be established without the authorization of parliament.

Second—The State shall accord support to any member of a religious order desiring to renounce the vows taken.

Third—The minister of justice is empowered to withdraw the authorization of any religious order found to be inimical to morality or public tranquility.

Fourth—The cabinet shall forthwith examine the authorizations previously granted to religious orders and cancel those which are illegal.

Fifth—Religious orders whose members are foreigners or whose director resides abroad shall be dissolved. The authorities are empowered to enter monasteries without ecclesiastical sanction.

Sixth—Religious orders shall not be allowed to hold property in excess of the objects for which they were instituted.

Seventh—The sums of money donated by members of religious orders to such institutions on their admission and the sums derived by orders from charitable subscriptions shall be strictly limited.

Eighth—All legacies to religious orders or donations to orders by living persons or by testaments or through intermediaries are formally prohibited.

Ninth—Religious orders engaging in trade or industry shall pay the regular taxes.

Tenth—Regulations for the dissolution of religious orders will be established.

Eleventh—The law of 1887 concerning the registering of religious orders remains in force.

Dispatches from the various departments of France report that the principals of many of the public schools are refusing to obey the orders of the authorities to remove all religious emblems from the schools. No cases of resistance, however, have been reported. After refusing to remove the emblems the principals allow the officials of the commune to freely enter the schools and remove the religious emblems.

JEWELRY.

Going Housekeeping?

If so, you can hardly get along without spoons, knives and forks. The silver-plated are without a doubt the most economical in the end. They wear longer, look better and cost very little more than the ordinary kinds. We can even supply silver-plated knives with steel blades.

Your sideboard is hardly complete without a silver set. Silver cake and fruit baskets should also be placed there.

A candelabra with will brighten the table considerably. After the spread has been cleared off a silver fern dish should be placed on the table.

The necessary things in cut-glass are the decanter, the berry bowl and the celery dish. In a great many homes the ice cream is served on cut-glass plates.

On your dresser place a traveling alarm clock and a sterling silver or silver-plated toilet set, also a hat and clothes brush.

You will find plenty use of a number of small silver-plated trays. One has always so many trinkets to take care of.

There should be a jewel case on the dresser, if only for appearance sake. Over night it is a good place to keep the watch and Z—K Gold Chain.
